My experience and skills

- 1 year as an Au Pair for a baby girl (5 months old) and a toddler (4 years old), fostering cultural exchange and childcare expertise.
- 1.5 years caring for a baby boy (6 months old), focusing on early development and emotional well-being.
- 2.5 years as a Mommy's helper, supporting families with household management and child-related tasks.
- Skilled in creating engaging, age-appropriate activities to enhance learning and play.
- Exceptional organizational and multitasking abilities.

What I love about the kids

What I love most about kids is their boundless curiosity, creativity, and joy for life. I enjoy supporting their growth, encouraging their dreams, and being a trusted figure in their journey of discovery and learning.
